The Brave and Beautiful Program

January 1st, 2016-February 1st, 2017

a 13 month online program to help 40 courageous women transform their biggest baggage into their most beautiful blessings.

You may be asking yourself the following questions:

- What is my niche?
- What is my sacred role in my community?
- What is my unique medicine?

It is my deep passionate belief that our stories are the ticket our our greatest blessings. The pain we have endured, the journey we have walked - this has been our initiation into the sacred work we are meant to be doing.

Consider these examples:

- A woman who has traumatic memories of medical procedures may study to become a herbalist or naturopath.
- A child who is bullied and tormented grows up to be an inspirational speaker and motivational author for bullied children.
- A traumatic loss of a child's parents leads to that child growing up to write poetry for adult survivors of traumatic loss.

We have all been gifted in some way by our unique experiences, and on some level, we crave being free to express the beautiful being we know we were born to be. I believe that each and every one of us has the birthright to be amazing, expanded, inspired and joyful, and with that inspiration, I created The Brave and Beautiful Program.

The Brave and Beautiful Program is a 13-month online program to help 40 courageous women transform their biggest baggage into their most beautiful blessings. I invite you to consider joining me on this journey to discover how your past holds your greatest strength - to learn how to embrace your past so you can celebrate your story rather than trying to get over it.
